

Model with Mathematics

- use math to represent problems in my world.
- explain math situations using objects, drawing, symbols, and words.
- make connections between representations.

